

Christ Church Cathedral Music Staff

ERICH S. BALLING, Canon Musician, was appointed Organist and Choirmaster at Christ Church Cathedral in August 2005 and Canon Musician in October 2006. He follows a long line of distinguished choirmasters at Christ Church beginning with Robert Quade, FRSCM, who founded the Men and Boys choir fifty years ago.

Under his leadership the Boys choir and Cathedral Girls Choir has grown exponentially through an active and innovative recruiting program. Since 2007, the choirs have toured internationally to England and Scotland four times and have sung in New York, Washington and Boston. Of the choir, Choir and Organ magazine said "...the choir inspired faultless singing and immaculate choral discipline. They demonstrated a paradigm to which we all aspire". Of a recent Messiah performance the Lexington Herald Leader noted "...the purity of the voices in the treble part and soft sonority of the male altos created exquisitely tuned chords of radiant beauty".

Prior to this appointment he was for 10 years Director of Music at Saint Luke's Parish (Episcopal) in Darien, Connecticut, one of the largest Episcopal churches in the Northeast. While at Saint Luke's he developed a large RSCM choir program for boys, girls and teens numbering over 70 voices; recorded two compact discs of sacred choral and instrumental music and led the choirs on two choral residencies at Canterbury and Saint Albans Cathedral as well as Royal Holloway University, UK. While in Connecticut he served as an adjunct faculty instructor at Fairfield University where he taught music history, theory and composition.

Over his career, Erich served on the Board of four American Guild of Organists chapters (twice as Dean) and has been an advocate for the ongoing work of organ preservation and restoration.

As an organ recitalist, he has performed in the United States, Canada and Great Britain. He holds degrees in organ, conducting and music history from the University of Michigan, where he studied with Robert Glasgow and Huw Lewis and Westminster Choir College where he was a scholarship student of William Hays and Allen Crowell. Erich may be contacted at eballing@ccclex.org.

KATHLEEN BALLING, Music Assistant, holds a music degree from Westminster Choir College in Music Education, with a concentration in Voice and Choral Conducting and has done graduate study at The Hartt School of Music in Vocal Pedagogy. She completed her Masters of Arts in Education at Georgetown College in 2013. She has taught music in the public schools for the last twenty-six years at the elementary and secondary levels, both instrumental and choral music. In addition to her work at the Cathedral, she is currently the vocal/general music teacher at Ashland Elementary School and maintains a private piano/voice studio. Cathedral Imps and Cathedral Schola are under her direction. Kathleen may be contacted at kballing@ccclex.org.

LISA HALL, Assistant Organist, has served Christ Church Cathedral since February 2012. She currently serves on Lexington's American Guild of Organists' Executive Committee as a Member-at-Large. Lisa has had the privilege of being the organist for choral residencies at Gloucester Cathedral, York Minster Cathedral, and St. George's Chapel, Windsor, England. In the spring of 2016, she will be the organist for Asbury University's choral residency to Bristol Cathedral. Lisa also presented an organ recital in Rome, Italy at St. Paul's Within the Walls in 2007. She enjoys singing in a choral ensemble in Lexington called Ecco that focuses on Renaissance choral music. Lisa holds a Master of Music in organ performance from the University of Kentucky and a Bachelor of Arts in organ and church music from Asbury University. Lisa may be contacted at lhall@ccclex.org.
